

RESULTS 2017 4-month Individual Planning Form Name: _____ Group Name: _____

Instructions: To become effective champions for the end of poverty, we must develop our advocacy skills and become increasingly courageous. Think about skills and talents you bring, and those you want to develop in 2017 to become a champion for the end of poverty. Please bring this completed form to the February 12 2017 RESULTS Planning Call (or to your group planning meeting).

1. What did I do well in 2016? What am I most proud of? What about our group?

2. What skills, talents, and passions can I bring to the group to expand our reach and impact?

3. In my 2017 RESULTS advocacy, a real breakthrough for me would be (choose something that is a personal challenge for yourself):

4. I'd like to develop the following skills in 2017. For ideas, see Your Resources (<http://www.results.org.au/get-involved/resources-tools>)

5. I am willing to take on leadership in the following area/s to help strengthen our group (circle one or more):

Group Leader – coordinating our group’s activities, coaching Advocates, being a role model, and keeping the group motivated in action

Partner – assisting and supporting the Group Leader to coordinate, motivate and coach the group

Media – monitoring media, tracking group’s media activity, getting group activities covered in local media, leading media actions, social media

Fundraising – leading the group’s fundraising activities, liaising with RESULTS staff, ensuring procedures are followed

Parliament – leading, tracking and coordinating group’s parliamentary outreach, tracking notable activities by your parliamentarians

Group Health – leading outreach events, inviting, welcoming and mentoring new people, social events

Partnerships – taking the lead to build relationships with community groups, churches, service clubs or other allies in your area

Something Else – taking leadership to make some other aspect of group life stronger and more sustainable _____

6. At the end of June 2017, I want to be able to say that I and our group have achieved the following:

Regarding our group health:	Regarding me:
With our Parliamentarians:	With the media:
With partnerships and fundraising:	Other goals I'd like to accomplish: